published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 26, to Saturday July 30, 1757.

AT the Court at Kenſington, the 8th Day of July, 1757,

PRESENT,

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majeſty's Order in Council, of the Eighth of June laſt, For paying the reſpective Bounties therein mentioned, to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, and alſo to all Able-bodied Landmen, who ſhould voluntarily enter themſelves in His Majeſty's Royal Navy; and likewiſe for paying the Rewards to Perſons diſcovering Seamen who ſhould conceal themſelves, is near expiring: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majeſty's Service, That the Bounties and Rewards thereby given, ſhould be continued to be paid for ſome Time longer; His Majeſty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, That the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and of Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, be continued to be paid to ſuch Seamen and Landmen reſpectively, who ſhall, on or before the Thirteenth Day of Auguſt next, enter themſelves in the Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by His Majeſty's Proclamation of the Fourth Day of January laſt: And likewiſe, That the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to any Perſons who ſhall, on or before the ſaid Thirteenth Day of Auguſt next, diſcover any Seaman or Seamen who ſhall conceal themſelves, ſo as ſuch Seaman or Seamen be taken for His Majeſty's Service. Whereof all Perſons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themſelves accordingly.

Warſaw, July 6. There are Letters from Pruſſia of the 2d Inſtant, which ſay, that the Ruſſians have actually inveſted Memel. Thoſe Letters make no Mention of Felt Marſhal Apraxin's Motions; but it is generally believed here, that great Part of his Army has paſſed the Niemen.

Bruſſels, July 21. On Tueſday laſt Lieutenant General de la Motthe, at the Head of three Battalions of French Troops, was received in Oſtend, in order to replace the Auſtrian Garriſon, which was to quit it as Yeſterday with their Commandant General Piza, and the Etat Major. The Town of Nieuport is likewiſe to receive a French Garriſon.

Hague, July 22. By Letters of the 15th and 18th Inſtant from Afferden on the Weſer, Major General Hardenberg was marched towards Gottingen on the 15th, with the Grenadiers, and the 2d Line of the Army was marched to ſupport him, and to attack, as it was imagined, a Body of French Troops, which encamped between Golmbach and Wurbſen in the Balliage of Forſt. It was not imagined that all Marſhal d'Etrées's Army would be over the Weſer before the 20th Inſtant. We have no News of Conſequence from Bohemia.

Whitehall, July 30.

The King has been pleaſed to appoint James Read, Eſq; to be His Majeſty's Conſul General to the Emperor of Morocco.

Admiralty Office, July 30.

His Majeſty's Ship the Southampton, command by Captain Gilchriſt, is put into Weymouth, and he gives an Account, that in his Way from St. Helens for Plymouth, on the 25th Inſtant, about Eleven o'Clock at Night, off the High Land of St. Albans, he fell in with five Sail of French Ships, two of which appeared to him to be of equal Force with himſelf; one of them he engaged upwards of an Hour and Half: She attempted to board him ſeveral Times, but meeting with a warm Reception, and receiving ſo much Damage from him, ſhe made Signals for the other to bear down to her Aſſiſtance, which ſhe immediately did, and he was for ſome Time between two Fires, one upon the Bow, the other on the Quarter, and continued engaging him upwards of an Hour longer; but Capt. Gilchriſt luckily got his whole Broadſide to bear on the firſt Ship, and by breeching his aftermoſt Guns aft, and his foremaſt Guns foreward, he gave her a whole Broadſide, which ſilenc'd her entirely. The other Ship then came up, and began a very ſmart Engagement for about a Quarter of an Hour, after which ſhe dropt a-ſtern. By that Time the Southampton was left a perfect Wreck, and in no Condition to follow either of them, having received eight very dangerous Shot between Wind and Water, had ten Men killed, and fourteen reported by the Surgeon to be mortally wounded, and as many more ſlightly wounded, he was obliged to put into Weymouth to repair her Damages. The ſaid five Ships are reported to be two Frigates, with three ſmall Privateers; and the Frigates Weight of Metal is the ſame with the Southampton's.

His Majeſty's Ship the Iſis, Capt. Wheeler, is arrived at Spithead, and has brought in with him three Privateers, viz. the Preſieux, 26 Guns, 240 Men, commanded by M. Dubois, belonging to St. Maloe; the Conte de Herville, 16 Guns, 16 Guns, 180 Men, Dehoan, of Bourdeaux; the Prince of Turin, 10 Guns, 84 Men, De Bras, of Havre de Grace: He likewiſe has retaken, and brought to Spithead, the Minerva, Hicks, Maſter, of London, which came from Antigua, under Convoy of the Anſon.

Lieutenant John Peighin, Commander of the James and Thomas Tender, gives an Account in his Letter of the 28th Inſtant, that in his Way from Rye to Spithead, on the 27th, at Five o'Clock in the Evening, being off Fair-Lee, he ſaw five Sail ſtanding to the Eaſtward, one of which was a large Snow, with a Teer of Guns fore and aft, ſix or ſeven of a Side, with Engliſh Colours: At Seven coming up very faſt with him, he prepared and got every Thing ready for Action, ordered every Man to Quarters, to lay cloſe down, and had run in his few Guns by way of Deception, hoping he would run up along Side of and board him; and told every Man ſingly, that if they did attempt it, ſoon as they received his Orders, that Inſtant to enter her. At Eight o'Clock he fired three or four Muſquets into the Tender, hoiſted French Colours, hailed and told Lieutenant Peighin, that if he did not immediately ſtrike, he would fire a Broadſide into him. Juſt as he ſpoke, Lieutenant Peighin hoiſted his Colours, repeated his Directions to his People to lay cloſe, and not a Man fire till he received his Orders. Two Minutes after hailing, the Frenchman fired a Broadſide and all his Muſquetry into the Tender, and rather ſeemed to edge from her. Lieutenant Peighin then bore down towards him, in Hopes of getting a Longſide of him, when he received a ſecond Broadſide, which carried away the Tender's Fore-top-ſail, that the Yard fell upon the Cap, tore the Jibb Fore-top maſt-ſail, Fore-ſail, and Top-ſail very much; when finding he could get no nearer than the Frenchman pleaſed to let him, he ordered his Men to begin and fire into him, and continued it a full Hour and Half, in which Time the Frenchman ſhot a-head, and got to Windward of him, and kept firing all the Time not above 20 Yards from them; and at Half after Nine, put about and ſtood from the Tender; and not coming near her again, and ſhe being in a ſhattered Condition, Lieutenant Peighin made for the Downs, and arrived there the 28th. He had four Men kill'd and ſeven wounded in the Action.
